To the Treasury,

To be completely clear: we believe that the new crowdsourced equity finance legislation is not serving its intended purpose to help early stage and growing companies to raise capital. We agree that:

- 1. The legislation should be extended to support the 99%, aka proprietary companies, not force them into additional complex and burdensome requirements.
- 2. The legislation should be extended to support the 99%, aka proprietary companies, not force them into additional complex and burdensome requirements.
- 3. The legislation should be extended to support the 99%, aka proprietary companies, not force them into additional complex and burdensome requirements.
